

The Village of Bayside and the City of Mequon have partnered to host informational meetings on coyotes in the area from national expert, Lynsey White-Dasher. The meetings will take place at:

- Bayside Village Hall, March 3, 6:30 - 8:30 pm
- Mequon Nature Preserve, March 4, 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Lynsey White-Dasher educated Bayside residents last year on coyotes in the urban setting. Lynsey, an Urban Wildlife Specialist from the Humane Society of the United States, will discuss the following subjects at both meetings:

- Insight on coyote ecology and behavior
- Discussion on why coyotes are in our communities
- Tips for coexistence with coyotes
- Ways to keep your pets safe
- Coyote hazing techniques

Coyote Informational Meeting

There will also be a time for you to ask questions. For more information on coyotes, visit the coyote information page on the Village website. We hope to see you at the meetings in March!
